

DR. BERNARD LAZARUS HELD ON PARDON GRAFT CHARGE.

Indicted on Governor's Complaint, He Denies Swindling Family of Convict Smith.

Dr. Bernard Lazarus of No. 423 Central Park West, indicted with Maurice I. Rosenberg for grand larceny on complaint of Gov. Smith, was arrested yesterday afternoon at the office of his attorney, Samuel J. Siegel, Judge McIntyre, in General Sessions, held him in $10,000 bail.

Lazarus and Rosenberg are alleged to have accepted $5,000 from the wife and brother of Jacob Smith, a convict under sentence of five to ten years for arson. The indictment charges they sold their influence to obtain the convict's pardon from Gov. Smith. It is alleged they knew consummation of sentence had been arranged on the ground of good behavior and ill health.

Lazarus, who is alleged to have posed as Gov. Smith's family physician, told newspaper men yesterday he had made no false representations. He blamed his predicament on "the lawyer from Union Hill, N. Y."

Charles Stenberg, a Union Hill attorney, was a witness before the Grand Jury, and told Assistant District Attorney Talley that Rosenberg introduced him to Lazarus as "Gov. Smith's family doctor."

Make it the Runkel Way

YOU needn't bother to grate chocolate—Runkel's All-Purpose Cocoa is concentrated chocolate in powder form. It simplifies matters—and improves the flavor. Try it and taste for yourself.

Simple Recipe for Fudge Roll Filling

4 level tablespoons of Runkel's All-Purpose Cocoa
1 1/2 cups of sugar
3/4 cup of milk
3/4 cup of butter
1/2 teaspoon of salt
1/2 teaspoon of vanilla

Melt the butter in a saucepan and stir Runkel's All-Purpose Cocoa into it, add the milk, sugar and salt, stirring constantly until it comes to a boil. Boil one minute. Beat until thick and creamy and spread on the cake roll.
